Bill & Tammy, your father was a good man that I respected a great deal. I have lots of fond memories of Bill Sr and I'm thankful that I was able to know him and spend time with him over the years. Our thoughts and prayer are with you all.

Tammy and Bill: So sorry to hear of your dad's passing. He was probably the last of the old neighborhood. The picture posted is the way I remember him, but he may have been even younger when when we first met. He would have been around 30 in 1965 when my parents built the house next door. It's crazy to think of our parents as being so young. Also sorry we lost touch. I know there were many times when I would visit next door I would think that I need to contact you. We just get busy with our lives and time slips away. It looks like you have plenty of support, but let me know if I can help. Just wanted to let you know you're on my mind. Take care.
