“ Horst was my great uncle, youngest brother of my grandmother Elly Müller. We were not able to see him very often because of the distance to Germany but we enjoyed every time we met him and Barbe. We will really miss his smile when he talked in German to Barbe because he knew that she didn't really understand everything he was talking. Many times he said "weißt du Junge, that's the way" ... our deepest thoughts are with Barbe and the whole family...

“ My father, Chet Gagas, worked with Horst at Neenah Foundry. I remember seeing Horst when I was with my father. Horst was a very kind and nice man. Just wanted to convey that to the family - that Horst could have an impact on a young child as he did with me. Pat Gagas Courtney
