“ Aimee I'm so sad to hear of your passing. When I first became an attorney I was told there will be a few clients that you will always remember and you are one of them. You encouraged me to be a better attorney and I'm so grateful for the moments that I shared with you. I remember the late nights talking to you about your daughter and the plans you had for a better future. You were so sweet and funny. This breaks my heart Aimee. I wish peace for your little girl and your family. May God bless them. Thanks for being you Aimee and know that I will never forget you.

“ Aimee I love you so much!!! The weight of losing you has been so heavy! You are my best friend and doing life without you hurts sometimes! When I didn't get an answer from you for a few days I was looking out my window and saw two birds flying and showing off and I heard you say I'm free now! I knew it was you and Ryan. I was in denial at first thought for sure I was losing my mind! But when I got that call that said you were gone my heart broke! I know u are with me Aimee!! I see you flying and I know that u and Ryan are together! Please keep coming to see me! I'm still sober Aimee and I'm so sorry I couldn't be there when u lost Ryan! You'll always be in my heart!

*Your bestie,
Laura Tyson*

“ I will always remember when Aimee was about 4 and her grandmother (my mom) suggested they could go and get Aimee a new dress. Aimee was so excited and said they could go get a pretty brown dress. Her grandma said told her brown was ugly. Aimee stormed out of the room, came back with a brown crayon in hand, held it proudly and high and explained clearly, “This is brown. And it. Is. Not. Ugly!”

That fierce spirit stayed with Aimee throughout her life. The world is so much dimmer without her shining in it. All my love to Stella and Matt and Destyneer during these dark times.

“ My dearest Aim 💜

Words could never truly explain the hole that has been left in our lives without you here. You were such a bright light in our lives. We miss you every day and will for the rest of days. But, I know one day we will see each other again. I know you and Ryan are together having the best time! We love you so much Aim. 💜

“ As i sit down to to write this I am still at a loss. Aimee has been there for all of us in someway. Hard headed yes, soft hearted for family. It’s always been that way as long as I have know her. For the things that I wish to have said the last I talked to you, now you already know those things. I want to sit with a heavy heart for the loss, but I hear her in the background making a joke for me to smile. It was way too soon for this to happen.

Aimee was loved by all who had known her, to this day I find myself just wanting to text asking how she is or trade pictures back and forth. I know she was called home, but I swear I still hear her laugh at jokes and whisper advice when I need it. Aimee, my barely bigger sister, I love you and will see you again when I am called home.

“ I am still at a loss of words... Aimee is my sister... We grew up together then we became adults and we lost contact... Then we began to talk again.. Funny thing I lost my other sister 5 years ago.. So when Aimee and I started talking again I was so HAPPY to be a big sister again and I will have a relationship with her... Every time we talked she made me laugh she talked just like our dad did I can't explain it if you knew them both you would understand... She was ALWAYS so happy and told me all the time how much she loved me... I have so many memories when we were younger I cherish them... I feel like I failed as your big sister by not saving you... I am so sorry.... You are LOVED so much and missed so much too.... What gets me thru is talking to you and knowing you are happy with Ryan.... You never met my kids honestly I am so mad still I have not gotten over being mad yet... When your mom told me I screamed and some days I just scream... I want you back I just wanted a sister again... I see how many people loved you.. You are such an AMAZING person Aimee I LOVE you and I am sorry ❤️

“ Aimee was my oldest best friend, that I've known since we were 12. We've always shared a deep, unbreakable bond. Even after not talking for a while, we would pickup right where we left off. Her family was my family growing up and we shared so many important memories together. Aimee always had the brightest light inside of her. She cared so much about her family and friends in her life and would do anything to make them feel loved and appreciated. I was lucky to have Aimee in my life for so long and I will be forever grateful that we got to talk shortly before she left this earth. I will miss you forever best friend. All my love to your family and friends.

“ My favorite. I met Aimee over 10 yrs ago and our first meeting she told me her life story. What I remember most about that story was the love for her daughter and her family and she was really missing her dad. We have stayed in touch all thru the years, she came to me when something bad happened and she came to me when something good happened. She used to say "I'm your favorite, right Ms Carra?" and she would laugh that beautiful Aimee laugh. Her daughter, Destynee was her heart and soul - every obstacle Aimee overcame was for her to be closer to being with Destynee. Aimee fell a few times but always picked herself back up coming back stronger than ever. Aimee and her best friend Laura used to say their dream was to live by the ocean with their daughters. Laura told me the other day she has seen the same bird for the past few days, chirping and flapping its wings. We both think it's Aimee. So I told Laura, the next time you see the bird, Aimee, please tell her I love her.
