“ Easter Sunday has just passed and I woke up to a dream of you and Helene on the farm in Ocala. It seemed like a very long time ago and you were both so happy. I saw you both laughing and walking in the grass smiling. I knew you were together and as sad as Jesse and I feel knowing you are gone we are happy knowing you are together always. You will never be forgotten and will always be missed. Love Denise

“ I was so sorry to hear of Albert's passing. I have fond memories of seeing Albert at my grandparent's (Augusta and Max Spiegel) house when I was young, and having Albert and Helen at my house to celebrate the 40th anniversary of my parents (Miriam and Joel Paretzky.) My condolences to the entire family.

“ I am so sorry to hear this news about Albert. Please accept my sympathy and concern about your loss. I have many fond memories and know that he shared a very special relationship with father, Bernard who passed away in 2006.

“ I am still trying to get over his wife's passing Helen, who was a wonderful friend of mine. My sincere condolences to Kenneth, Gregory and grandchildren. I just can't get over how my friends have been passing since 2006. If you have a moment, would you please tell me how he died? Thank you. Peggy Bryson
