

Albert Lee Mountjoy Jr.

August 31, 1965 - June 2, 2020

Albert Lee Mountjoy Jr: Martial Artist, Massage Therapist, Advocate for the Mentally Ill, loving father and grandfather was preceded in death by daughter Sydney Lee Mountjoy of Virginia and a granddaughter, and he is survived by his mother, Jeanette Conner of Florida, brother, Rodney "Craig" Mountjoy of Florida, a daughter, Sally McDowel of North Carolina, a son, Brandon Lee Mountjoy of Texas, three grandchildren, nephews, a niece and several great nephews. His family misses him dearly.

Attached is an article written by Mountjoy for the Orlando Sentinel regarding the changes that are necessary to ensure better treatment of the mentally ill.

"Change mental-health services" - Orlando Sentinel

<https://www.orlandosentinel.com/news/os-xpm-2007-04-29-omyword29-story.html>

Services are in care of Coast to Coast Cremations of Ocala, Florida.

Tribute Wall

DT

“ It is with heavy heart that I read about Lee's passing. I was looking for the obituary of his father, who passed in 1975. Another friend, Steve Martin and I took Lee and Craig to the movies many years ago around 1974, this is when they lived in Kempsville, in Virginia Beach. My heart goes out to his family and friends. So many prayers of comfort are sent to his loved ones. I am So sorry for your loss.

---

Donna Thurston - July 24, 2020 at 02:40 AM

JB

“ I was much saddened to hear of Lee's passing. Lee was my first Black Belt at the Aikia Karate school in Blacksburg (1981). Lee was promoted by a board that agreed in addition to superior skills, Lee also demonstrated superior character. He always did more than was asked of him. Often Lee would be the first to come to the school and the last to leave. As a teacher he was admired by the students. As my student I was very proud of him and wanted to include him in the book Mastering Karate.

To Sally and Brandon, his children , I trust that you both would be most proud of your father, Lee Mountjoy. I imagine that both of Lee's children possess their Dad's dedication and enthusiasm for their own path. Lee fought the good fight. We will remember his never ending enthusiasm and dedication always. May he rest in Peace.

Jerry Beasley, Ed. D.

---

Jerry Beasley - June 23, 2020 at 10:54 AM