

Alexander Lyndon Cauldwell

October 23, 1975 - February 26, 2026

Alexander Lyndon Cauldwell, age 50, died unexpectedly on Thursday, February 26, 2026, at home in Ocala, Florida. Alexander was born on Thursday, October 23, 1975 in Neath, Wales, United Kingdom to David and Collette Cauldwell having moved to the United States of America in 1982. On the day that Alexander was born a baby horoscope predicted two possible career paths, one was to be a Stand-up comic the other a jewel thief. Alexander fulfilled both predictions. He was always quick fitted with quips that kept you laughing. His mother always told him he belonged on a stage. As to his other career path, that was fulfilled at the age of fours when his kindergarten teacher in Tailbach, Wales rang his mother to ask if his mother owned a ruby ring and where was the ring? The answer was at home in his mother's jewelry box. Wrong his teacher said, the teacher said Alexander had taken the ring for his kindergarten sweetheart, the daughter of one of his mother's friends.

Alexander was a giant of a man in every aspect of his life. Gentle, compassionate, caring and loving. He will be greatly missed by his family and all that had the privilege to know him. Alexander was passionate in a variety of table top games which are set in different universes and settings. Having started at the age of eleven, he spent countless hours painting and amassing his armies. He leaves behind a treasure trove of armies, tanks, and scenery. Alexander is survived by his loving mother, Collette, sister, Hannah and relatives in Wales. He was preceded by his father, David Ronald Cauldwell who passed away March 2, 2024. Alexander's memory will live on in the hearts of all those who loved him.
