“ I met Alison in September of 1993 when she was in my kindergarten class. Her kindness was apparent even then . When my daughter Erin was born Alison made her a little quilt with bears on it, that I still have. A cherished gift and memory all these years later. Fran and Ray - I am so sorry for your loss. I will keep you both, Brent and her beautiful children in my prayers .

“ Alison, I remember us sitting at the breakfast counter waiting for your mom to cook us breakfast every Saturday morning. I remember the day you met Brent and couldn't stop talking about him. You knew then he was the one for you. Your kindness will never be forgotten. You were such an amazing mom and person.

“ I met Alison when she was a little girl and she joined my Girl Scout troop. I also got to know her better when she was playing soccer with my daughter. I watched her grow up to become a beautiful young lady. She was a loving and caring person. I know she will be missed by many. I am so sorry for your loss Brent and family. My deepest condolences to you too Fran, Ray and Ray Jr I am so sorry.
