

Allen S Cohen

November 7, 1934 - July 18, 2025

Allen S. Cohen - November 7, 1934 – July 18, 2025 - Ocala, Florida

Allen S. Cohen, age 90, passed away peacefully on July 18, 2025, at Bridgewater Park Assisted Living in Ocala, Florida.

Born on November 7, 1934, in New York City, Allen was a proud native New Yorker who later moved to New Jersey, where he embraced a more rural life and developed a passion for gardening, hunting, and fishing. After retiring, he settled in Ocala, Florida, where he enjoyed his later years.

Allen spent many years commuting from New Jersey to work at the American Stock Exchange, known for his discipline, drive, and strong work ethic. He was a U.S. Army veteran and will be honored with military services at Florida National Cemetery at a later date.

He was predeceased by his beloved wife, Carol Cohen. He is survived by his devoted long-time companion, Marilyn “Mickey” Scott; children Thomas McNicholas, Donna Wedel (Steven), and Paul McNicholas (Shari); grandchildren Jennifer (Victor), Christopher Wedel, Matthew McNicholas, Kathleen McNicholas, Kelly McNicholas, Patrick McNicholas (Meri), Michael McNicholas, Daniel McNicholas, Alison McNicholas, and 6 great-grandchildren.

Allen will be remembered for his directness, confidence, wit, and generosity. He was a prolific reader, a savvy card player, and someone who found joy in life's simple pleasures—digging in the garden, casting a fishing line, traveling to new places, enjoying a good meal and drink, and spending time with family and friends.

He leaves behind a legacy of strength, warmth, and a life well lived. He will be deeply missed and fondly remembered.

“ Christopher Wedel (Grandson)- I always considered Allen Cohen to be my Pop Pop (He was my Mother's and Uncle's Step Father) and a Father Figure in my life. You taught me how to fish, ride a bicycle, play catch, card games, you introduced me to new food knew by also going to the best restaurants, and more. I think about you and Grandma all the time and will miss you very much
