“ Allen was a kind and gentle hearted man who Loved his Daughter and having Many step children added to his family when he married my mom. He was always telling me stories of the old days on the farm growing up in Wisconsin. He will be missed by all and we are grateful that he has gone home now to be with all his friends and family who went before him. Go find a nice place to enjoy your forever home Allen with those who loved you and waited patiently for you arrival.
