“ I lost a part of me the day I left my family, but the loss is greater now that I can no longer look at you brother. You were a rock at times for me, a strong minded person who I will miss more than these words could say. You are with your father's in heaven and will be watching the family the way you always did. I played your song "Ballad of the green beret" for you and will always remember you. I love you brother, R.I.P.
