“ For your faithful O Lord, Life is changed, not taken away.

"Rest in Peace," how much this says,

Be free of pain no more to weep.

Find joy that never ends, possess

New life that here you could not keep,

"Rest in peace, " and though we grieve,

Reaching for your hand in vain,

Our faith is such that we believe

That all of us shall meet again.

"Rest in peace," the drums are still,

The smoke has cleared, the battle's done.

And now forever yours to keep

The golden prize that you have won.

Against the sunrise on the hill,

Your colors wave upon the breeze,

With shield of honor; lance of truth,

You overcame with such as these.

*No dirge of sorrow shall we play,
For one who goes to meet the Lord.
Could but we all be Heaven's guests,
As you receive your just reward.
Dear blessed sleep that merely marks
The ending of a holy quest,
Your gentle touch remains upon
The hearts of those who loved you best.*

“ I am home in Heaven, dear ones; Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty In this everlasting light. All the pain and grief is over, Every restless tossing passed; I am now at peace forever, Safely home in Heaven at last. Did you wonder I so calmly Trode the valley of the shade? Oh! But Jesus' love illumined Every dark and fearful glade. And He came Himself to meet me In that way so hard to tread; And with Jesus' arm to lean on, Could I have one doubt or dread? Then you must not grieve so sorely, For I love you dearly still: Try to look beyond earth's shadows, Pray to trust our Father's will. There is work still waiting for you, So you must not idly stand; Do it now, while life remaineth ~ You shall rest in Jesus' land.
When that work is all completed, He will gently call you Home; Oh, the rapture of that meeting, Oh, the joy to see you come! Safely

“ From the Book 'Better Than Gold' that Andy gave me in 1978 Better Than Gold Better than grandeur, better than gold, Than rank and titles a thousand fold, Is a healthy body and a mind at ease, And simple pleasures that always please. A heart that can feel for another's woe, And share his joys with a genial glow; With sympathies large enough to enfold All men as brothers, is better than gold. Better than gold is a conscience clear, Though toiling for bread in an humble sphere, Doubly blessed with content and health, Untried by the lusts and cares of wealth, Lowly living and lofty thought Adorn and ennoble a poor man's cot; For mind and morals in nature's plan Are the genuine tests of an earnest man. Better than gold is a peaceful home Where all the fireside characters come, The shrine of love, the heaven of life, Hallowed by mother, or sister, or wife. However humble the home may be, Or tried with sorrow by heaven's decree, The blessings that never were bought or sold, And center there, are better than gold. ~ Abram Joseph Ryan

“ I have never met any of Andy's family but I want you all to know I have had the pleasure of knowing Andy for twenty years. I met Andy at Gabriel's Christian Bookstore, where I work. Andy was a frequent visitor of the store and he quickly became a special friend to me. Andy was a very private man but He was a very good man and loved by all of us at the store. I don't know a lot about Andy's past but I know he told me he had made some mistakes, like we all have, but his life had changed when he met Jesus...For twenty years I have watched Andy live out his faith...I learned a lot from Andy but most importantly, I learned to never be afraid to share what Jesus means to me and to help others to find Jesus...I will miss Andy very much but I know today without a doubt Andy is happy and well and having a conversation with Jesus...I will see you again my friend.

“ I am comforted by your words "I love you" you said to me during your last weeks. I think you found peace when you had a surprise visit by your children, and saw that you were still in their hearts. Until we meet again... A life is like a song we write in our own tone and key, . Each life we touch reflects a note that forms a melody. We choose the theme and chorus of the song to bear our name, And each will have a special sound, no two can be the same. So when someone we love departs, in memory we find, Their song plays on with in the hearts of those they leave behind.

“ 1 Corinthians 13 New American Bible (Revised Edition) (NABRE) 1 If I speak in human and angelic tongues but do not have love, I am a resounding gong or a clashing cymbal. 2 And if I have the gift of prophecy and comprehend all mysteries and all knowledge; if I have all faith so as to move mountains but do not have love, I am nothing. 3 If I give away everything I own, and if I hand my body over so that I may boast but do not have love, I gain nothing. 4 Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, [love] is not pompous, it is not inflated, 5 it is not rude, it does not seek its own interests, it is not quick-tempered, it does not brood over injury, 6 it does not rejoice over wrongdoing but rejoices with the truth. 7 It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. 8 Love never fails. If there are prophecies, they will be brought to nothing; if tongues, they will cease; if knowledge, it will be brought to nothing. 9 For we know partially and we prophesy partially, 10 but when the perfect comes, the partial will pass away. 11 When I was a child, I used to talk as a child, think as a child, reason as a child; when I became a man, I put aside childish things. 12 At present we see indistinctly, as in a mirror, but then face to face. At present I know partially; then I shall know fully, as I am fully known. 13 So faith, hope, love remain, these three; but the greatest of these is love.
