

Andrew Kass

May 28, 1957 - July 16, 2023

Andrew Maurice Kass passed away at his home on July 16, 2023, in Ocala, Florida.

Andrew was born in New York City, New York, to Herbert and Benemarie Kass on May 28, 1957.

He attended Torrejon High School on Torrejon U.S. Air Force Base outside of Madrid, Spain. He attended college at McNeese State University in Lake Charles, Louisiana.

He briefly served in the United States Air Force. Andrew opened his own business in Georgia and worked in numerous fields until he found his love for working with people suffering from trauma and addictions. He spent the last 19 years working at The Refuge, A Healing Place and Guest House Ocala where he became a part of healing and hope for thousands.

He was an avid reader, loved music and old movies, had a photographic memory of facts about any topic and could quote facts, figures, and statistics. He loved all sports especially baseball and the New York Yankees. He will be remembered by many for his genuine heartfelt kindness towards others, his gentle spirit, his loyalty, his integrity, and his humility.

Andrew is survived by his sisters, Nancy Jenkins, of Ocala, FL, (Brian), Susan Suarez of Key Biscayne, FL (Alberto), and his nephews, Robert Suarez (Jennifer), Daniel, and Erik Suarez.

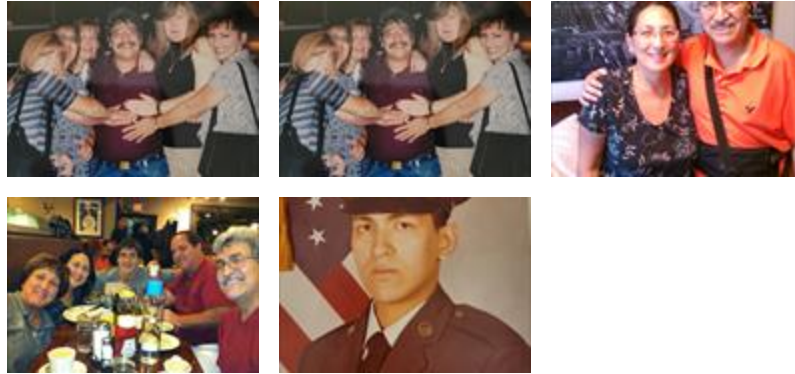

The family will have a private ceremony in Andrew's favorite place, the Blue Ridge Mountains of Georgia.

In lieu of flowers donations may be made to The Humane Society of Marion County at 701 NW 14th Road, Ocala, FL 34475

“ I have known Andy from the Refuge 10 years ago. Being the only nurse at night, he constantly checked on me. We shared dinner together, especially his favorite spring roll. We laughed and cried sometimes..I will miss you Andy. May you rest in peace.
