

Angel Leonidas (Avin) Soriano

June 14, 1954 - April 8, 2026

ANGEL LEONIDAS (AVIN) SORIANO, de 72 años, residente de Hialeah, Florida, falleció el 8 de abril de 2026 en Ocala, Florida. Ángel nació el 14 de junio de 1954 en la República Dominicana, hijo de Alcides Soriano y Melania Adminda Velázquez. Desde joven aprendió el valor del trabajo duro, una cualidad que lo acompañó durante toda su vida. Trabajó por muchos años como mecánico de autos, una labor que reflejaba su habilidad, dedicación y empeño al proveer para su familia. Gracias a su esfuerzo constante y su sentido de responsabilidad, se aseguró de que a su familia nunca le faltara nada.

También era conocido por su disposición a ayudar a los demás siempre que podía. Ángel sentía un cariño especial por los vehículos—especialmente los autos clásicos—los cuales admiraba y le interesaban a lo largo de su vida. En su juventud, Ángel disfrutaba mucho de pescar y atrapar cangrejos con su hermano, momentos sencillos que le brindaban tranquilidad. Más adelante, mientras sus hijos crecían, valoraba pasar tiempo con ellos montando bicicleta y compartiendo en familia en la playa.

Le sobreviven su esposa, Tatiana Lozano; su hija, Angely Isabel Soriano Glass; sus hijos, Angelo Soriano y Mike Ángel Soriano; sus hermanos, Leandro Soriano y Ladislao Vittini; y sus hermanas, Alicia Soriano y Delis Soriano. También le sobreviven sus nietos, Andrés Glass, Marcel Glass, Brandon Glass, Devin Glass, Ethan Glass y Silas Harrison Soriano; así como sus sobrinos y sobrinas, Alcides Soriano, Johan Soriano, Giselle Melania Soriano, Melissa Soriano, Jacqueline Vittini, Elizabeth Vittini, Joseph Vittini, Andrew Vittini, Alicia Vittini, José Nazario Jr. y Christy Nazario.

Su vida, marcada por el trabajo arduo, una fortaleza tranquila y su disposición de ayudar a otros, se refleja en la familia que formó y en las muchas personas a quienes tocó a lo largo de su vida.

Se llevará a cabo un servicio conmemorativo en Roberts of Ocala Funeral Home el 30 de mayo de 2026 a las 10:00 a.m.

ANGEL LEONIDAS (AVIN) SORIANO, 72, of Hialeah, Florida, passed away on April 8, 2026, in Ocala, Florida. Angel was born on June 14, 1954, in the Dominican Republic to Alcides Soriano and Melania Adminda Velazquez. From an early age, he learned the value of hard work, a quality that remained with him throughout his life. He worked for many years as an automotive mechanic, a trade that reflected his skill, dedication, and perseverance in providing for his family. Through his consistent effort and sense of responsibility, he made sure his family was always cared for and never lacked anything. He was also known for being willing to lend a helping hand to others whenever he could. Angel also had a genuine love for vehicles—especially classic cars—which he admired and took great interest in throughout his life.

Growing up, Angel especially enjoyed fishing and crabbing with his brother—simple moments that brought him peace. Later, as his children were growing up, he valued time spent riding bikes together and sharing family moments at the beach.

He is survived by his spouse, Tatiana Lozano; his daughter, Angely Isabel Soriano Glass; his sons, Angelo Soriano and Mike Angel Soriano; his brothers, Leandro Soriano and Ladislao Vittini; and his sisters, Alicia Soriano and Delis Soriano. He is also survived by his grandchildren, Andres Glass, Marcel Glass, Brandon Glass, Devin Glass, Ethan Glass, and Silas Harrison Soriano; as well as his nephews and nieces, Alcides Soriano, Johan Soriano, Giselle Melania Soriano, Melissa Soriano, Jacqueline Vittini, Elizabeth Vittini, Joseph Vittini, Andrew Vittini, Alicia Vittini, Jose Nazario Jr., and Christy Nazario.

His life, marked by hard work and quiet strength, is reflected in the family he raised and in the many people he touched throughout his life.

A memorial service will be held at Roberts of Ocala Funeral Home, Downtown Chapel, 606 SW 2nd Avenue, Ocala on May 30, 2026, at 10:00 a.m.
