

Ann Fowler

June 20, 1935 - June 16, 2024

Ann Fowler passed away peacefully on June 16, 2024 in Ocala, Florida. She was born on June 20, 1935 to John (JW) and Mary Edwards in Porterdale, Georgia. She was the youngest of 4 children and made a name for herself with her incredible singing talent and effervescent personality. An avid Georgia Bulldog fan her entire life, she graduated from Crawford Long School of Nursing in Atlanta, Georgia and soon found her niche in critical care nursing where she opened the first Cardiac Care Unit in Atlanta. She married John Bledsoe, and they made their home in Ocala in 1972. Together they had three children: Sidney Vincent Chase, Mel Bledsoe of Chiefland, FL and Pam (Ronnie) McKillip of Ocala, FL. Ann retired from nursing after 30-years at Monroe Regional Medical Center. She sang in the choir at First United Methodist Church and the Ocala Symphony Orchestra, was a member of Garden Club and Women's Club. She provided vocals for many weddings and was always willing to share her incredible voice. This love of music was one of the pillars of her marriage to Thomas Fowler. Ann and Tom had many wonderful adventures volunteering for the State Parks all over the Country and traveling in their RV until they settled in Micanopy, Florida.

Ann was service minded in all that she did. She continued to find ways to give back in service to Church of the Mediator in Micanopy, gardening, reading, baking, or caring for her grandchildren and friends. Generous and kind, she was beloved by all who met her.

Ann always had a joke ready and could tell the best story. She shared her love of others, her tenacious spirit and her kind nature with all those around her. Ann will be dearly missed by her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband, Thomas Fowler, son Sidney Chase, Mother, Father and Brothers.

A Celebration of Life will be held at 11:00 am at Church of the Mediator in Micanopy on Saturday, June 29, 2024.

Arrangements by Roberts Funeral Home, Downtown, Ocala, Florida

Previous Events

Celebration of Life

JUN 29. 11:00 AM - 12:00 PM (ET)

Church of the Mediator
Micanopy , FL