

Ann M. Smith

December 23, 1936 - September 18, 2021

Ann Smith (84), beloved wife, mother, grandmother and friend to many, passed on 9/18/21 at home and surrounded by family members as she would have liked it. While sad and missing her tremendously, her family views this as merely the start of another chapter for her in Heaven, where she is met by her Lord as her Faith promises and is having a joyous reunion with loved ones who have gone before her.

Born to Lonnie and Roselee McGlamery in Bainbridge GA, she moved to Hollywood FL as a youngster and became a lifelong Floridian. Married to William C. Smith for over 66 years, the couple raised two children, were active in Sorority and bowling leagues, and enjoyed family gatherings and walking the Hollywood Beach Boardwalk. Faithful members of Annunciation Catholic Church, Ann and Bill supported the annual Carnival and built and maintained a lovely butterfly garden where a bench still bears their names. Having moved to Pembroke Pines and finally Ocala, Ann was a friend to many and a stranger to none. She had been active in the garden club, Reading Pals at a local elementary school, and Mah-jongg groups in Oak Run. But most of all, she was a wonderful mom to Tara (Carol) and Brant (Kim), and grandma to Marissa (Lisette), Kyle, Brandon and Chad Smith. She is survived by her loving husband Bill, sister Alma Hart, sister-in-law Barbara McGlamery Cutcher, nieces and nephews (Mike, David, Glenna, Bret, Suzi, Renee, Barbara, Richard, and Jennifer) and their spouses and children, cousin Vicky McGlamery and many others. She was blessed with dear friends too many to list but whom she cherished like family. We hope all of you find comfort in knowing the depth of her love and devotion.
