“ Ginny, Tommy and Family, My condolences on the lost of your Mother and Grandmother. I've known you for sometime now and always remember the 3 of you when you lived in New Jersey. Tommy you were like son #2. I remember your grandmother and picture her just as she looked when she lived here in Jersey. She was a strong lady. God Bless Her. Love, Mrs. Lupinacci and family XOXO

“ Where do I begin? From the endless times you babysat for Amanda and Spencer to the hours of card games we played (Contract Rummy, Michigan Rummy, etc.) to holiday dinners and birthday parties to shopping trips to our visit to the mall to see Kathi Lee Gifford (your favorite!). Thank you for all the great times we shared....sweet memories that will remain with me forever....I love you, Aunt Anne, and I will miss you so. xoxoxo

“ Nanny was the single most important influence in my life.while my mom was out working to provide a fantastic life for me.Nanny was home with me molding me into the man I have become.While obviously I missed a few of those lessons:) one of my favorite accumulation of memories is the times in which we spent on the couch watching the Phillies play.She would sit on the couch and look over at me and ask me if I wanted to share an orange that Aunt Mary and the family had sent up from florida.Of course I would say yes and she would tell me to go get a "few" from the fridge and I would come back with 7 oranges.she would begin to peel them and I would eat them as quick as she was peeling them and when all was said and done there wasnt much sharing that had occured.That was how she lived her life.she would give and give until the problem or the issue was gone and she was satisfied with that in itself.

“ I remember Aunt Anna describing how she watched my father's shoes descending the steps to the lower level at Woolworth's in Trenton on the night I was born to tell her all about it. Now there is no one left with memories like that. She has always been a big part of my life, and I will miss her very much.

“ I remember nanny's spirit of adventure. She was always up for fun. When she was nearly 80 years old she climbed onto the back of my motorcycle, put on a helmet and went for a ride around Ocoee. When I was a teenager she was daring enough to climb into my dune buggy and take a ride. She could be so much fun. Great times.
