

Anne K. Bredow

August 30, 1969 - April 28, 2025

Anne Kimberly Bredow, 55, of Ocala, Florida, passed away peacefully on April 28, 2025, surrounded by her loving family. Her life was one of quiet faith, steady service, and unwavering devotion to her family and to God.

Anne was born on August 30, 1969, in Chicago, Illinois. She graduated from West Aurora High School in 1987 and spent 14 dedicated years working for Dominick's Grocery Store before moving to Florida. Once in Florida, Anne continued her commitment to serving others as a contract File Clerk for the Florida Department of Children and Families, where she faithfully worked for 13 years.

Anne had a heart for ministry and a deep love for teaching children about Christ. For over 20 years, she served in the AWANA children's ministry both in her home church in Chicago and later in Florida, always with joy, compassion, and purpose. Her faith was the foundation of her life, and she poured that love into every child she taught and every life she touched.

Anne is survived by her husband, Anthony Bredow of Ocala; her children Danny Campbell, Hannah Brooker, Joshua Bredow, and Caleb Bredow; her step-parents Mike and Peggy Campbell; and her sister Deborah Elmquist. She was preceded in death by her beloved son, David Jacobs, and her brother, Peter Campbell.

A memorial service will be held at Calvary Chapel Belleview with Pastor Lee Fox officiating. The date and time will be announced once finalized.

In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests donations be made to support them during this time. Details on how to contribute will be shared once arrangements are confirmed.

Anne will be remembered for her kind spirit, her servant's heart, and her unwavering faith in the Lord. Her legacy will live on in her family, in the children she taught, and in every life she encouraged along the way.

Previous Events

Memorial Service

MAY 31. 2:00 PM (ET)

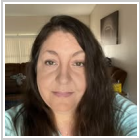

Calvary Chapel Belleview
9706 US-441
Belleview, FL 34420

Tribute Wall

RG

“ Anne and I worked together for several years. I will always be grateful for her support and kindness when I was grieving over my husbands battle with cancer. She always had us in her prayer. I will miss her kind soul and friendship. RIP Anne and go with God

Renee Gray - May 05, 2025 at 12:30 PM

“ I will always remember Anne for her unwavering faith in God and the deep love she has for her family. I had the pleasure of getting to know Anne through our job and we shared laughter and tears. She became such an inspiration to me. I want to be a strong woman of faith like her! I will miss you Anne, but I will see you again in heaven!

Lisa Hendley - May 05, 2025 at 12:10 PM

JS

“ You will be missed Ms Anne. We sat near each other at work at one point and she knew that i was into journaling so she gifted me a beautiful journal with beautiful scriptures in it. Rest Easy, Ms Anne, you will be missed!

Jamie Stephens - May 05, 2025 at 11:41 AM

VR

“ Valentine Reynolds lit a candle in memory of Anne K. Bredow

Valentine Reynolds - May 05, 2025 at 08:07 AM

TE

“ I've known Anne for quite a long while. She was my first friend I ever had back in grade school. She was kind to me. I see she never stopped. There times I had seen her as adults but life took us in different directions.

It is sad to see her go but I know I will see her again. She is no more in pain in this lifetime any more. She's had a lot of that.

Teri - May 03, 2025 at 07:35 PM

KW

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Anne was very dedicated to her faith and family. She knew when I needed a hug and needed a word of encouragement. She loved my daughter and taught her some of the first Bible verses of her life. The world will have a void with her not here, but man...oh man....is she rejoicing in Heaven! Signed,
Kathleen, Katie and James Wortz

Kathleen Wortz - May 01, 2025 at 12:45 PM