“ It is healthy and honorable to weep at the loss of someone we love. Healthy because such passion must be released. Honorable because it is respectful to admit the importance of people who have loved and supported us...people whose footprints cannot ever be matched. (Maya Angelou) Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal.

“ Don you will be missed but never forgotten. Your cousin Dee had nothing but admiration for you and your kind loving spirit. I couldn't wait to meet you and when I did you welcomed me with open arms from the start. Felt like we knew each other for years. I am so fortunate to have known a man that regardless of his issues, always had a smile and a nice word or two. I am proud that you are my daughter's Godfather. May you rest in eternal peace my friend. Love, Tami

“ Mr. Tucker was a kind and loving man who always expressed his admiration for his wife. He was passionate about his car as it offered him the "wings" and freedom he longed for as he struggled with his most recent condition. As an administrative assistant here at DaVita, I was resident photographer working on various projects for our facility. We had various brief conversations but his eyes always lit up when he spoke about his loving wife and the fun he had in Las Vegas. We will all miss him dearly and will walk with the confidence in knowing he has his real wings now. His kindness and gentle spirit will forever remain with all the lives he touched.

“ Ardon Tucker: I will miss seeing you jiggling to the music from your Ipod. I will miss our talks about your phosphorus control, your trips, your love of fried chicken and how Prince rules your household. You may be gone but you are not forgotten.

“ I just pray that God's peace envelope you and your family in this time. I know he was blessed among men because God granted him the love of a virtuous woman! Please believe and trust that God has him in heaven. As Tucker walks the streets of gold and takes residence in his mansion; he had no more pain, no more sorrow, no more sickness and no more tears. So as you cry, please be lightened by this truth.

“ Hey Sanj! I let too much time go by thinking I might make it to the funeral but my 1st thought was that I might come a little later so we can hang out some! I love you and I will miss Tuck; he was always so nice to me and I could call him like I could call you and he would talk to me like he was my friend just as you were. I've always admired you two and your devotion to each other. Be well and keep enjoying life; you KNOW that's what he wants for you! Love you and speak to you soon! Luv you too Tuck! I'll miss you!

“ Sandra, I am sorry I can not attend the funeral on Saturday. Please accept my sincere condolences on your loss. Although I did not know your husband, just looking at his picture he appears to be a warm and giving person. Your students have all expressed their feelings of sadness and are concerned of your well being at this time. Peggy Pappas
