“ Aunt Autherine had a quiet spirit and carried herself as a true lady, who always wore heels! Uncle Bo, I pray that you will remember the good years and allow those memories to sustain you in the days ahead.

“ May this devout woman of God rest in peace in the arms of Christ. We will always remember Mrs. Mitchell and her unwavering greeting of “God is good”! She will be remembered for her outreach and witness, especially has she faithfully visited those in the various nursing facilities throughout the city, bearing gifts of scripture, prayer and a healthy treat, particularly bananas. I remember Mrs. Mitchell as she faithfully led the Missionary Auxiliary lesson study sessions for many years. Will forever remember Mrs. Mitchell as she would often convene her own private time with God —praying and meditating all alone in the sanctuary. We will certainly miss the presence and essence of Mrs. Mitchell. May God bless her family. 🙏 Deacon Larmond and Regis Boatwright
