“ Austin, or Shane as he went by from time to time was literally the first person I made friends with when taking back my sobriety. We shared some good laughs and some tough times in detox and then in residential. I'm at a loss for words for what happened to him. I know justice will be served. We'll all miss you bro.

“ I'm sure he's smiling right now. I remember how he used to say he finally found a place he was wanted. And judging by all the love and warmth I have seen, he is definitely smiling.
