

Awilda Perez

December 31, 1969 - November 16, 2010

Obituary of Awilda Perez This page is dedicated in the loving memory of Awilda Eugenia Perez, loving wife, mother, and grandmother. She is survived by her loving husband, Jose M. Perez and her daughters, Loraine, Aneisha, and Loretta. She is also survived by her granddaughter, Aurea. Never did we foresee the day that she would leave us and join the angels up above. Awilda was a loving and caring woman who wore her heart on her sleeve. No matter what you needed, she would do her best to help you out. She did a wonderful job of raising her daughters alongside her husband. To this day, even as we are struck with so much grief, we are thankful to God for allowing her to grace this earth with her presence. You will be missed - Painfully - but NEVER forgotten. May you now be at peace and reunited with your mother and father up in heaven.
