“ Barbara was a very fair child, light and so pretty too. Her hair was a beautiful array of waves in a strawberry blonde color that I envied. Her mother doted on her, being her only daughter i suppose and they lived in a big beautiful house on the corner of Taber and Liberty St in S. Quincy. I even remember Barbara's Grandmother who lived next door but in the same house.It seems she had a great big family of her own too, from reading this well written obituary. I'm so sorry to have to say goodbye to you Barbara. When ever I picture, you it is always standing on the corner of Liberty & Taber holding one of your many, many dolls. You were a much loved child.Till Memory Fades and Life Departs You'll Love Forever In Our Hearts.
