

Barbara Jones Vasvari

February 22, 1936 - September 7, 2021

Barbara Jones Vasvari, age 85, peacefully passed away at Estelle's Hospice House in Ocala, Florida on September 7th, 2021. Barbara was born in Glen Ridge, New Jersey on February 22, 1936 to Arnold Jones and Pearl Bird, father and mother as the only child.

Barbara's childhood was spent at Bloomfield, New Jersey where she attended school there.

In 1953, her father got a job with Prudential Insurance Company here in Jacksonville, Florida, where her and her family soon moved to. Barbara went to Landon High school where she did cheer leading and graduated from.

In 1983 she married Paul Vasvari in Jacksonville, Florida.

She worked as a secretary for years in a variety of companies and lawyers, also working for K-mart for 11 years as well. Barbara and Paul lived in Jacksonville, Florida until his retirement from Duval County Public Schools in 1993 and moved to Silver Springs, Florida. Barbara was active in participating in many activities such as tap dancing with Bonnie Bolte Dancers, Ocala Civic Theater Golden Troupers, Marion Civic Chorale and karaoke singing. She loved to perform and make lots of friends.

Barbara will be missed very much by her loving husband Paul, her son Rick, her grandsons and her friends.
