

Benjamin James Buxton

November 19, 1984 - September 11, 2021

Benjamin (Ben) James Buxton, 36, passed into Heaven on September 11, 2021 after a brief illness. Ben was a dedicated husband and father who had recently moved from Ft. Myers to Ocala. Ben had grown up in Bushnell, Florida and graduated from South Center High before moving to Maine in 2005 where He met and married his bride, the former Shannon Ryan of Northport, Maine. They had returned to Florida in 2016 and made it their home. His work included stints at Walmart, Home Depot, Coke Bottling Company and most recently with Direct TV. He had a profound love of all kinds of sports, especially football and NASCAR racing.

Ben is predeceased by his Father, Todd Anthony Buxton, a long-time police officer in Bushnell. He is survived by his wife, Shannon, two children, Jennifer and Nicole, his mother Melanie Buxton, two sisters Maria Navarro and April Buxton, and one brother, Todd Buxton, together with three nephews and two nieces. A family gathering of remembrance will be held at a later date
