

Benjamin Martinez

April 14, 1936 - August 10, 2013

Obituary of Benjamin Martinez Ben was born on April 14, 1936 and passed away on August 10, 2013. Ben was a resident of Ocala FL. He was born in Patterson, NJ and grew up in New York City. He had a strong work ethic. His first job was shining shoes at the age of nine years old. He also worked delivering bread and newspapers to help support his family. He moved to Ocala in 1953 and began working at Silver Springs Sportswear as well as operating the family chicken farm until entering the army in 1959. He returned to Ocala upon leaving the service in 1961 and working at Silver Springs Sportswear as a cutter and worked his way up to foreman of the cutting department. While there he met his future wife, Martha Tidwell. They married on July 1, 1962. He was a member of Blessed Trinity Church and was a member of the Knights of Columbus in which he served as Grand Knight from 1969 to 1970. He moved to Miami in 1970 when he was promoted to VP in Charge of Production until leaving in 1985. He then returned to Ocala and worked at American Panel, Capri Furniture, and then part time at Winn Dixie until fully retiring in 2001. He was an avid reader and loved reading about the Civil War and World War II. He also enjoyed home improvement and woodworking projects, especially making doll houses, and gardening. He loved to travel with his family, especially to Ormond Beach. He adored his grandchildren and family. He had a generous heart and loved to help people when he could. Ben is survived by his loving wife Martha of 51 years. Two sons, Benjamin Jr. and his wife Vanessa of Tallahassee, Gregory and his wife

Susan of Gainesville, Three grandsons, Jay of Tallahassee, Daniel and his wife Jasmine of Tallahassee, Benjamin III and his fiancée Alyxandra of Sarasota. Granddaughter Toria Caitlin of Gainesville, Great grandson Caleb Daniel of Tallahassee. He was preceded in death by his father Benjamin Diez Velasco Martinez and mother Anna Mgercak Martinez, sisters Dorothy Whetstone and June Martinez. He will be greatly missed by all his family and friends.
