“ i wish I could call you right now. I really need a hug and a kiss and an everything is gonna work out but I have to believe that youre up there with Papa and Bubby leading me and Leigh in the right direction. I miss you more than words nana and this world is no good without you in it. I will forever wish we had more time to make memories but I will cherish the ones we have forever. LOVE YOU ALWAYS, Your Amber Bamber

“ To the James and Consider family, we all send our condolences, love and prayers. Im happy I got the chance to meet Mrs. Betty James. I loved her smile, her spirit and the way she made me laugh the times I spent around her. And I will definitely miss her cooking! Mrs. Betty will be missed and I will never forget about her. We both shared someone very special. A beautiful, happy, blessing our grandson Lorneand another one on the way Major. Im glad she got the chance to spoil Lorne and love on him. But she will always be there watching over her grand babies forever and always. Fly high Nana!!! The Taylors
