“ Ronnie, Patty, Christopher, Deborah, Gillbert, Mark and the rest of the Tucker family... I have been truly saddened to hear about the death of your Father, Rev. Tucker. If not for Mr. & Mrs. Shrader stopping and picking me up, and your Father PRAYING WITH ME AND FOR ME, to have a relationship with Jesus I truly would have been just another lost soul in this world. Because of your Father I know with everything that is in me I will walk with Jesus and see Rev. Tucker again in Heaven and I am who I am because Rev. Tucker took the time to pray with me and for me. He has always, I mean ALWAYS had a SPECIAL PLACE IN MY HEART and I will forever be so grateful to him. My prayers are with your family now and always... Love Sharon(Shifflett)Gibson

“ Granddaddy, Thank You for instilling the word of GOD in my father so he could do the same for my brother & me. I will remember the days at Clarksburg Church of GOD where you preached the most awesome services & how many lives you reached & led to Christ. After 32 yrs of preaching GOD's word, your work still had not been finished. You also shared the word of GOD in Ocala & led many lives to Christ as well. I will forever cherish Revelation 21:1-7 & 1 Peter 1:3-9. Rev tells me what I will inherit & 1 Peter is the Hope that we have that you instilled in your entire family. You 'made it home' & I wish I could have been there when GOD looked @ you and said, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant. Enter thou into the joy of thy lord. Enjoy the Feast at the table with Jesus, grandma, pawpaw knighton, & the rest of the Family & friends! We Love & Miss You! Love Always, Brian & Brandy

“ Ronnie, Deborah, Gilbert, and the rest of the family. I have many fond memories of your Dad, and Pat, and I are thinking about you today. His sermons stayed with me since 1982. I have talked about him often, and still have his record. If you get this before the funeral, please walk up to the casket, and tell him I Love him! With our deepest sympathy, and Love. John and Pat

“ It is with deep sadness that we read of the death of Rev. Tucker. He was a good friend to us for many years here in Maryland. My late father-in-law thought the world of him as well as my mother-in-law. I was always impressed that he remembered my name after only one meeting. Please accep all of our sympathies. John T. Proctor, CFSP, Muriel H. Barber and family, and all of Rev. Bobby's friends here at the Muriel H. Barber Funeral Home, Laytonsville, Md.
