“ Hi baby brian, Theres not a day that goes by that I dont think about this horrible accident. It really burns little bro. I pray theres no pain up there cause if you are feeling what we are feeling down here I trully feel sorry for you. I know you are missing us just as much as we are missing you. I miss talking to you, laughing with you, and even getting pissed off at you because I only got mad for a minute or two then the subject would change. I see you in my sleep all the time but you never answer to your name. I guess thats your way of letting me know your still looking down on us but you cant respond. You do look happy though. If theres any way you can let me know what its like up there then please let me know. If each prayer I make helps you sleep better at night then please send me a sign cause I promise I will pray all day! Always remember that nobodys mad at you and that we all love you. You will always be in my heart little bro. I along with the rest of your friends and family need your help to get through this. Say hi to my father and tell him I love him brian...

“ Brian- Where do I begin....I miss you more than words could say. I am at your house right now...I am sure you know...I signed your guitar tonight and your shirt. I also gave you a hug and kiss. Damn Brian years came and went. I was looking at the pictures of us in the town homes and just cried because it brought back so many memories. I know you see your dad and he is doing better...he still has his moments well everyone does but it will be hard for awhile...I know this and so do you but time does heal everything. I know you are resting now and enjoying the "worry free" life...say hi to my grandmother and grandfather for me. I miss them alot too and it has been some years now and you always wonder. Ok so my memories of us well when you were little I remember you had to eat your cereal from a certain bowl...the blue bowl with the straw built in it so you could drink the milk after...the park we used to go play at in Miramar...you always gave me a hard time and never listened but hey that was Brian the stubborn one lol. Or when your mom would be trying to leave to go somewhere and you would run out of the house in your UNDERWEAR!!! She would be standing there screaming your name and biting her knuckle on her index finger...haha those were only a few funny moments we shared. Remember the Costco hotdogs you used to get with us...those were good...Well I can go on and on but I don't think there is enough room for me to do that. I will be back to post more...you know I always come back... all the years we have been friends...family!!! I love you Brian David Vega!! Rest in peace and watch over your family B!!! I love you!!! xoxoxox Suzanne

“ The LORD is my shepherd, I shall not be in want. 2 He makes me lie down in green pastures, he leads me beside quiet waters, 3 he restores my soul. He guides me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake. 4 Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, [a] I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me. 5 You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. 6 Surely goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
