

Carl Falconer

December 31, 1969 - May 14, 2011

Obituary of Carl Falconer Carl E. Falconer, 90, passed away May 14, 2011 at Ocala Regional Medical Center. He was born in Lancaster, NY and moved to Ocala in 1979 from Scotia, NY. He was a retired USAF Tech Sergeant, was a P47 fighter pilot, an ex POW and an air traffic controller. He served in WW II and Korea. He enjoyed gardening, model trains, working in his workshop and traveling and camping. He was also a flight instructor. He is survived by Sharon A. Falconer, his wife of 47 years, sons Carl J. (Cathy) Falconer of Geneva, FL, William J. Falconer of Ocala, 2 grandchildren, and a sister Betty Balcom of Lancaster, NY. There will be a gathering with viewing from 2 to 5pm on Wednesday, May 18, 2011 at Roberts Funeral Homes Bruce Chapel West, 6241 SW St Rd 200, Ocala, FL 352-854-2266. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to the ARC Marion, 2800 SE Maaricamp Road, Ocala, FL 34471 (352) 387-2210.

Tribute Wall

GR

“ You truly were one of the greatest generation. We are so proud of you. Gail & Ron

---

Gail Rebmann - May 18, 2011 at 12:00 AM

RF

“ Sharon: Judy and I wish to express our condolences. I am so pleased we were able to see you all again last year and have you meet Judy. Since Carl and I shared a birthday I always felt a connection. If there is any thing I can help with or do for you, feel free to ask or contact me.

---

Robert John Falconer - May 17, 2011 at 12:00 AM

TL

“ You were a very special uncle & a hero. We always looked forward to our visits & enjoyed the teasing give & take. Be at peace until we see you again.

---

Terry & Kathy Luthart - May 17, 2011 at 12:00 AM