“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this time. We ask that God look over you and your family and also give you the strength to cope with your loss. At this very same time this gives us all a chance to look over our lives and be appreciative of the days that have passed and for the days to come- for tomorrow is never promised for the flesh but can be everlasting for the soul. May God Bless Your Family! Tiffany and Thomas Thagard

“ My condolences to the Holmer family and all of his friends. Although it is very difficult to lose a loved one, time will lessen the pain. In my faith, I feel Carl is just asleep in death and conscious of nothing at all - Ecclesiastes 9:5. He is in God's memory awaiting a resurrection - John 5:28,29. I feel confident I will see him again - 1 Thessalonians 4:13. The first words out of my mouth to him will be, "Ye-haw!" Sincerely, "Wash"

“ My sincere condolences go out to the entire Holmer family and friends. The loss of a loved one is always difficult, but time will lessen the pain. In my faith, it is as if Carl is asleep and not experiencing any pain - Ecclesiastes 9:5. He is in God's memory awaiting a resurrection - John 5:28,29. I am confident I will see him again because of this hope - 1 Thessalonians 4:13. "Wash"

“ Carl was: Dedicated employee of the Dept. of Corrections Professional Officer / Sgt. Trustworthy / Honest / Straight Shooter Friends like Carl are few and far between. With joy shall we obey the summons of the Grand Warden of Heaven, and go from our labors on earth to eternal refreshment in the paradise of God, where, by the benefit of the pass of a pure and blameless life, and an unshaken confidence in the merits of the Lion of the tribe of Judah, shall we gain ready admission into the celestial lodge where the Supreme Architect of the Universe presides. We love you Carl Homer

“ We were friends in high school and roommates in college. We shared many adventures in life when we were younger. On Lake George, Salt Springs, Silver Glen and Juniper Wayside. Many places won't be the same without him, but he will always be in mine and my families memory. Through good and bad we always loved you. Go in Peace Big Guy ! JJ

“ My sympathy goes out to Holmer's family. I will not be able to attend the services this week; but I want to share with the family my condolences. My prayers will be with his family. God never does anything wrong and I recommend to the family to look to the hills from whence cometh our help, our help comes from the Lord who made heaven and earth. God will keep you is my prayer. “ Carl thanks for always being there when I needed you. You never asked for anything. You could always make me laugh when I was upset. You are a true friend and we always exchange Carl memories at work as we all know you were good for plenty of laughs. I love you brother and will surely miss you. You are one of a kind. RIP brother and hope we will be reunited one day.
