“ I have great memories of growing up with Carl. We were able to hang out for a while in our twenties before we all scattered in various directions with our spouses. While we may not have had much contact over the years, I always loved him. We had a wonderful visit a few years ago and reminisced. I will always keep those memories with me.

“ Carl was a good man, and we will miss him always. He was a wonderful father, and friend, and our lives were made better simply because he was in them. We will always love and miss him. Thank you to Barb, for showing such strength and grace, and keeping us all going. And a special thank you to Roberts of Ocala for taking care of our family.
