“ When I first met Carlos. I was a nurse tech, while he was a nurse. Our days of working together were filled with laughter, learning, and taking care of our patients. He always made me laugh with his funny little remarks to basically everything. He made light of any situation, and always had a positive attitude that he carried with him daily. When my daddy passed away in 2001, Carlos brought me a candle to work, with the sweetest sympathy card. He told me to light it whenever I thought about my daddy. Now, 22 years later, I'm returning the kindness that was shown to me. The lighting of this candle represents the light, the love, and the warmth he showed to others. I had the pleasure of meeting his daughter, Olivia, very recently. My heart goes out to this sweet girl and her mom, for this horrific loss. When a girl loses her daddy, she needs prayers. Shona and Olivua, my thoughts and prayers are with you. Carlos, I'm certain you're dancing along the streets of gold, having the best time of your life. Always and forever in our hearts.

“ I met Carlos over 28 years ago as a nurse tech while in nursing school. He was always so much fun, laughing, kind, and very helpful to all new nurses which was rare in those days. He was pretty new himself. We became great friends over the years and our daughters both named Olivia were only weeks apart. What I remember most is his laugh, his jokes and all the great parties he had in his home. We always had such a great time in his company, and I loved working with him when I could. You knew it was going to be a chill day with Carlos.

I also had no idea about the hair until he showed me at his home. I loved his curly, thick hair and was shocked when he took it off. He laughed so hard that I had no idea. You could not be stressed around him. He always had such a relaxed way about him. He was always friendly with everyone and had no enemies. Even though we lost touch over the last few years, Tim and I will greatly miss him. He was a great friend and we had so many fun memories with him.

When I retired from nursing 4 years ago, it's not the work I miss, but the people I worked with, especially nurse Carlos. Missed you then, miss you now and always will. Gary and I have fond memories of you, most recently the "cookie" visit! Wish we shared more of them ❤️

“ I worked at the hospital with Carlos several years ago. He was always happy and always made the best out of every situation. He was fun and easy to be around. He always made people laugh and feel comfortable. He was loving and kind hearted and just an all around great guy!! Even though I haven't seen him in many years I am saddened to know he is no longer here with us. He left an impression on so many of us and I hope he knows how many people loved him. RIP 🙏 dear friend and know that the world was a better place because of you! ❤️

“ Carlos was so important to me. I trained him when he was a new RN. I will never forget watching him give his first shot to a patient. He was so nervous but did fine. He was the most wonderful kind hearted guy I ever met. My heart goes out to you and your family. Just know that he has made a great positive impact on many lives, patients and friends. He will always be remembered with more love than most others could ever hope for.

“ I hired Carlos as a tech for Orthopaedics a long long time ago.(when he had hair / rug) I told him this would be his longest interview ever. Even though you could hardly find him. (outside having a fag) he still managed to get his work done and his patients loved him. Good memories. God bless all the family
