“ Hi Pampa. Today is my final for my Anatomy class. Im so nervous but Im also feeling quite confident. I know you are with me today and with you by my side, I just know I'll do great. Thank you for being the best grandfather a little girl could ever have and thank you for being the inspiration behind my desire to help people with medicine. I'm not ready to let go today, and maybe I wont be ready to let go any time soon...but if you're not too busy, help me and just let me know that you're ok and that you're waiting for me. I love you Pampa; forever & a day :) -Delia

“ Dear Dad; I'm writing this letter to say hi and to ask you how are you? Hope that you are well and that you are happy to be with God. I know that you are happy to be with brothers; Roberto, Pablo Enrique, Marco Tulio, Fidel, and your sisters Maria Margarita, Maria Elena and Maria Elisa as well as with Gandpa Fidel, and Grandma Virginia. I have to tell you that I see you every where I look. I miss you a whole bunch. Dad, I know that you are fine in heaven. Thank you for loving me so much. Dad, I need a favor. I know you will grant me more than one favor. Remember when I called you to ask you for a favor? You always would say, "not just one favor but two". 1.from heaven keep us company, guide us and help us continue this life journey. 2. don't worry about mom, I know how you worried about her more than yourself. I'm here with my brothers to take care of her. I promise to; be strong, obedient and above all to care for your spiritual guide as you called mom. I'm not going to lie, this bridge that I'm crossing at this time is not easy. I thank you for I know you were preparing me for this moment in life. Dad, my psychologist, therapist, counselor, and financial support. Thank you, a thousand thank you for your great love. You daughter that loves you infinitely. Till we meet again. Ruthy
