“ There were only the two of us old timers left Carol and we had promised to stay with each other for a long time to come but God called you and you were ready to go and be with your Mom, Dad and Bill. You have left me with so many wonderful memories that we had over so many years. We always considered ourselves more like sisters than in-laws. I will miss hearing your voice on our nightly phone calls, of course after wheel of fortune. Above all I will miss YOU Carol and you will always be forever in my heart. Till we meet again.

“ Because of the many miles between us, we didn't see each other often but you were ALWAYS in my thoughts. So many happy memories at the Lake, Radio City Music Hall and our Christmas and Easter visits downtown. Having lunch with you when I worked in the city. Christmas's and Thanksgivings and movies in the back room of Grandma's and Grampa's house. Happy times! I love you Aunt Carol and will miss you terribly but all those memories will keep you close to my heart so, I guess, you will ALWAYS be here. ❤️
