“ So today is Mother's Day and I wanted to wish you a Happy Mothers Day. I have come to the conclusion that I do not like this holiday. I think moms should be celebrated everyday not just one day a year. I think all having one day set to the side does is remind everyone who does not have a mom in there life how crappy it is. Miss you Love you wish you were here.

“ Hey Mamaw. It's been awhile since i've wrote on here. I still miss you like crazy. Always will. Recently, papaw has passed away as well. Y'all both were my hero's. I miss y'all like crazy. I guess God was ready for 2 great Angels. I know your in a better place now though. Away from the pain. I love you, and i love papaw. I miss y'all. I love y'all as well. God has 2 very wonderful Angels now. People say it'll get better over time. Sometimes i think it's a lie. Remember when we came down to Florida to live with you for 6 months? I remember. Or remember when you gave me all of those pencils, pens, and markers? I do. I remember it all. All the memories. I will never forget as well. I love you mamaw. I will never forget you. You'll remain in my heart. FOREVER . <3 Love you. <3

“ *HAPPY BIRTHDAY MOM.....It just doesn't feel right typing it out in a guest book. Wish you were here so I could say it in person. Why does everyone keep telling me it will get easier with time. It seems to be such a lie. Everyday without you here grows harder for me. This is Halloween as well as your birthday and everyone expects me to be happy-go lucky and in a festive mood. It is very difficult for me to do. I want to make you a cake and put 53 candles on and send it your way but I don't think delivery services deliver to heaven.. I just want you to know.. I am thinking of you and LOVE YOU ALWAYS...

“ Dear Mamaw Carolanne, Will I ever accept the fact that you are gone forever? I wish I could have said good-bye. You were a big part of my life. You taught me my times tables when I was in first grade. A lot of parents or grandparents wouldn't be able to do that. But to me there's something special that made me sit down and learn them with you. If you are watching me right now whether it's every muscle I move or any letter I type I just want you to know that I love you with all of my heart. I LOVE YOU <3 xoxo

If you are watching over me right now I just want you to know that I love you with all my heart <3 xoxo

“ Mom, Please bear with me, as I am having a difficult time finding the words to express what I wish to say. Mom, You are an angel lent to us and this earth by God for way to short of a time. From fixing our boo-boos with kisses and lollipops to holding our hands while we were sick, to caring for many as a nurse, going above and beyond. You have touched a great many lives. You are loved and will be dearly missed. Randy Travis did a song entitled Angels and I would love to share a verse here with you, any mistakes in the lyrics are solely mine. Are you telling me that you've never seen an Angel? Never felt the presence of one standing by? No robe of white, no halo in sight Well you missed the most obvious thing Aww man, are you blind? Just look in your mother's eyes And then I said who went through the pain? And smiled through the tears on the day of your birth? She counted your fingers and toes, and thanked God you were whole Son, you outta know who loved you first, thats right And who always came running everytime you cried out? And how many more things have you forgotten about? And who tried their best to teach you wrong from right? And how many nights did she leave on the light? While she waited and prayed that you came in And who'd be there for you right up till the end Think about it tonight Mom, we love you and you will be missed dearly. God must have needed an Angel when he called you home. You have earned your wings. Now please Fly, Fly high and know you are loved

“ I am so sorry for your lose, may the lord comfort you during this time of deep sadness by your memories of the fun times, the hugs, the days in the pool and all your loving memories. Your mom was a strong, hard working, compassionate person who persevered through so many obstacles. We are all blessed to have had her in our lives. She would want you to celebrate life and hold on to each other. When you need her she'll be there, as the lord has blessed you with a guardian angel. If I could wrap my arms around you all right now I would. Love each other like you never loved before. Love Aunt Kay
