

Caroline Riccadonna D'Agostino

March 25, 1935 - October 25, 2024

Caroline (Rainey) Riccadonna D'Agostino

With heavy hearts, we announce the passing of Caroline Riccadonna D'Agostino, a devoted mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and cherished friend. Caroline, known as Rainey to her family and friends, was a hard-working mom who always put her family first, embracing every moment with love and dedication. Known for her friendly spirit and love of bingo, she brought joy to all who knew her.

She is preceded in heaven by her beloved husband, Tony D'Agostino, her former husband and father of her four children Richard Riccadonna and her dear grandson, Nicholas. She is survived by her loving children—Anthony, Richard, Lori, and Robert—her treasured grandchildren, Andrew, Joey, Anthony, Rocco, and Gianna, and her great-grandchild, Maximus. She is also survived by her sister-in-law, Lydia Judge whom she grew up with.
