

Carrie Remmy

December 31, 1969 - January 11, 2013

Obituary of Carrie Remmy Carrie Doreen Daub was born in Titusville, Pa in February of 1928 to Ceora Belle Fabian Daub & Arthur Daub, her family was very poor like a lot of people in that era but they were happy, I remember Mom telling me about when her and her brother and sister would hang their stockings for Santa and wake up Christmas morning so excited at the oranges and candy that Santa had left for them, can you imagine a child today being excited about a simple orange and a few pieces of candy in their stocking from Santa Claus, it is the simple things in life that bring so much joy and make lasting memories. Carrie's Mother Ceora Belle Fabian was born to August Fabian & Estella H. Proper Fabian, August Fabian came to the US from Magdenburg Germany in 1867 and made his way to the Proper property called the Diamond of Venango County Pa where he met, fell in love with and married Estella H. Proper Carrie's Grandmother, Carrie is the Great Granddaughter of William H. Proper <http://venango.pa-roots.com/Plum/plumstory22.html> and the Great Great Granddaughter of Daniel Proper <http://venango.pa-roots.com/Plum/plumstory68.html> and the Great Great Great Granddaughter of Samuel Proper, the Proper Family can trace it's roots back to 1703 when the 1st Proper Family came to the US from Germany. I was hoping to take Mom back to The Diamond for a visit this Spring but she decided to go see her ancestors in person, enjoy the reunion Mom. I was able to share all these fantastic discoveries with her over the past year and she was so excited at every new discovery. Mom graduated from Titusville High School in 1946 and she worked for Southern Bell/BellSouth for 30 years, she started as a Cordboard Operator in 1956 and retired as an Assignment Clerk in 1987. Carrie had 7 children: Cleatus Remmy, Albert Remmy, Patty Remmy, Karen Delp, James Delp, Brenda Remmy, Randy Remmy. 10 Grandchildren: Linda Remmy, Richard Remmy, Candy Remmy, Robert Remmy, Brian Remmy, Harlan Remmy, Theodore Black, Michael Black, Bryan Black, Carrie Delp Kralik. 10 Great Grandchildren: Dusty Remmy, John Remmy, Jo Remmy, Boomer Remmy, Brandon Black, Justin Black, Tyler Black, Ashlynn Black, Faith Black, Trinity Black.

“ I first met Carrie and Mr. Remmy in April, 1973 when I came to visit with their granddaughter, Linda. I fell in love with Florida and the Remmy's. They made the "mistake" of telling me that if I ever wanted to move down, I had a place to stay till I got settled. Well, I took them up on their offer and moved down with a friend (Debbie) in September. Carrie encouraged us to apply to the telephone company and using her as a reference we were both hired. Later, when I tried a different career path and things didn't work out, the Remmy's again opened their doors to me and I moved back "home". The Remmy's were my Florida family and Carrie was the heart of that family. It was her good nature and calmness that held everything together. No matter what, her kids and her husband always came first. In all the time I stayed with them, Carrie and the Remmy family never made me feel like I was a guest. I know I made a good choice when I adopted this family. I have so many good memories of the time I spent with Carrie.... long talks, playing cribbage, swimming in the pool, drinking at the American Legion, Richard's Strawberry Daiquiris, Gumbi... Over the years we kept in touch mostly through e-mail, telephone and an occasional visit. And I'll miss that. But her presence will always be in my heart, not just as a friend, but as my Florida MOM. and I will always be grateful that she and Mr. Remmy allowed me to be a part of their family.

“ Carrie was a beautiful lady inside and out. She was always such a joy to be around. I will never forget the kindness and love she showed to Steve's father. We both loved spending time with Carrie and so did Steve's dad. We know that Carrie and "Sam" will now see each other again. Go with God Carrie. You will be missed, but never forgotten.
