“ I am so sorry to hear of the passing of Carrie. I met her when she first moved here from Ohio. She was having a huge Garage Sale. I felt bad because it was mostly toys and I don't have children. She was so uplifting and Happy and told me her story. I had tears in my eyes and can't believe she lasted this long. God wasn't ready for her yet, she touched alot of lives in the short time she lived in Ft. McCoy. God Bless the Family. Rest in peace with your Heavenly Father Sweet Lady. You are no longer suffering. The Lord will look over your husband and Children Now. Glad I had the opportunity to meet you.much Love 💕🙏🙏🙏

“ A personality, you did not care what others thought. You always spoke your mind. You loved all 4 of your kids and adored your husband. You were forever grateful of you mother in law and how great she was to your kids. Your lives were always so fun to watch. You knew your makeup. You will forever be missed.

“ Carrie I don't have any fun pictures of us to post. But you meant a lot to me. I'm so thankful you felt comfortable to talk to me when you were feeling down. I enjoyed our conversations. You've been a friend since middle school. I'm so sorry you had to go. I can't fathom how your babies and husband must feel. I pray for them every night. I pray you're at peace and no more pain. But you will deffinitely be missed. You had a spark about you that I always connected with. Rest in peace carrie 💕

“ I will always remember your kind beautiful free spirit the late night conversations lunch dates and your sweet face. You were loved by so many and I will miss you forever. God got an angel for sure. You were a wonderful friend and the reality of not seeing you again breaks my heart but I know you are looking down and no longer sick. Love you forever.
