“ hello im kentrell, i knew chad for the longest he was my brother best friend. I always called him my brother. I remember him coming to the house to hang with my brothers, everywhere chad went my brother went they were so close. Now with chad gone things just aint the same! My smile isnt there anymore because he's not here. I couldnt help but cry when i was told what had happen. My whole life changed that day and it hasnt turned back the same. But like i was told will get to see you one day. I love you chad your gone but your never for gotten. Love Kentrell

“ Hello, this is Ky Jones. I met Chad my freshman year at FHS a couple years ago. But Lorenzo and I were friends since Emerald Shore Elementary where my mom(Ms.Woods)worked. But in my short years nowing Chad he was a wonderful person to be around. He had the greatest personality to go with what he said was "his charming looks". He was also so very talented on the drums and i have to admit, I think he was the only person who was better than me. But to the my friend Lorenzo, and the rest of the family, stay strong in GOD and keep the faith. And know that one day in that great getting up morning, when Jesus comes back,... we will see Chad again. To Chad, I love you man, and to the family, I love you and what you need call me for anything. Love, Your friend Jr.
