

Charles Liotti

December 31, 1969 - March 18, 2014

Obituary of Charles Liotti Charles "Chuck" Liotti was born in Buffalo, NY in 1928. Chuck graduated from the University of Buffalo and served during WWII as a Navy Corpsman. He was married to MaryAnn Kipp for 63 years until his beloved wife passed away in September of 2013. Chuck was a wonderful father to 5 children, Michael (& Marta); Colleen (& Kenny); Tracey (& Larry); John (& Vivian) and Kelley. He is known as "Pop-Pop" by his 8 grandchildren, and he was so very proud of each of them; Melissa, Blake, Brooke, Kevin, Jordan, Nicole, Shelby, Tyler and he also had a step-granddaughter Amber Keane. He has 6 great-grandchildren: Madeline, Isabella, Bronson, Jackson, Evangeline and Braelyn. He is survived by his sister, Venita Chrisman. Chuck was a member of the Elks for many years. He enjoyed traveling throughout the USA and Canada with MaryAnn in their motorhome throughout their retirement years. His beloved dog, Tia Maria, was always by his side and he never went anywhere without her. Chuck will be laid to rest with his beloved MaryAnn at Florida National Cemetery in Bushnell, Florida. “ The Lord has another victory! A wonderful man joined his wife yesterday and is now renewed.... We praise God for his grace. My heart goes out to his family, such good friends and loved their parents, took such good care of them. I pray for your comfort during this time and that angels will surround you. We love you, Jeff and Clover

“ I love you very much Pops. You were the best father a daughter could ask for. I will always remember how much you used the word "wonderful" in our last conversations. You will be missed so very much! Give Momma a big hug for me. xxoo
