

Charles Robison

December 31, 1969 - April 5, 2011

Obituary of Charles Robison Charles John Robison, 45, of Ocala, passed away April 5, 2011. Born in Danbury, Connecticut, he came to this area 10 years ago from Charleston, South Carolina. He was a US Marine Corps Veteran, Chef by trade and enjoyed cooking, reading, writing, animals and watching sports, especially his Red Sox. He is survived by his mother, Claire Robison of Dover, NH; sisters, Linda (Steven) LaBranche, Phyllis (Robert) Audette and Ann Robison all of Ocala; nieces, Erica Walsh of Ocala and Monica Mahoney of Boston, MA; nephews, Robbie Audette of The Villages, FL and Brad LaBranche of Seymour, CT; great nieces, Nichole, Kylee, Brittaney and Ashlea Walsh; great nephew, Sultan Audette. He was preceded in death by his father, Charles J. Robison, Jr. Visitation will be held at ROBERTS FUNERAL HOMES, Bruce Chapel East (2739 SE Maricamp Rd. Ocala, 352-732-9944) on Saturday (April 9th) from 9:30 - 11AM. Funeral Services will follow at 11AM with Father Patrick J. Sheedy officiating. Inurnment will take place at a later date at St. Charles Cemetery in Dover, NH.

Tribute Wall

“ Charles Robison

June 20, 2014 at 12:00 AM

“ Charlie I was so saddened to hear you were no longer with us. Although we were only 23 & 25 when we met, you still remain a part of my heart to this very day. Our first date was July 30th 1988.... (how's that 4 memory?) Actually, the real reason I remember that date is becuz u made me laugh more in one day than I ever had b4. In our year together we had our ups & downs like every young couple, but you were truly blessed w/a GREAT personality and a BIG heart. Today little Ashley is 24 yrs old....and still remembers going to Chucky Cheese w/u, Linda & her daughter. Hey, remember the "Who" concert..... :) I shall miss a very good man, so many lives you've touched & made all the more richer for it, we all thank-you charlie!!!!!!! Luv, Darleen P.S. I shall pray for your family

Darleen - July 23, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Uncle Charlie, I'll probably right a million times.... I love and loved you to death... From my memories of rollerskating in NC, you visiting in NH, or down in Florida... I loved every minute. I charished very second with you always, Why did you do this to me...(and everyone else) You where perfect to me... I would have done anything for you. Why couldn't I have helped??? I love you n miss you soooooo much, to the point I still have a hard time believing it all.. As I go though all my emotions you will hear about it.. Right now I love you and miss you, but angry.....xoxoxx

Erica Walsh - April 22, 2011 at 12:00 AM

AW

“ It has been a week now and everyone is still sad in their hearts. It is so hard to think that you are gone. I have heard so many stories that I wish I heard from you. The months that you lived with my family you were always smiling even though deep down we knew you were not happy. You were still so positive and gave me lectures about how important school is. Our whole family hated to see you suffer the way that you did. We all miss you and I can only hope you were there on Sat. to see how much we all cared. It was a very bittersweet day. Some were happy to think that you have found what you wanted but others were full with tears missing you so much. I can't begin to explain how many times I heard the food was good but "Chuck's was better." You were always there for a great laugh and a warm memory. I hope you know how much everyone loved you. You will be especially missed during the holidays and we will always love you! (p.s. I will be recycling the secret Santa gift in honor of you)

Ashlea Walsh - April 13, 2011 at 12:00 AM

DB

“ To the Robison family - sorry to hear about your loss. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

Doreen Buckley - April 09, 2011 at 12:00 AM

SL

“ Charlie you will always be in my thoughts and I will remember all the laughs that we have had together. You are going to be missed very much. I love you man

Steven LaBranche - April 08, 2011 at 12:00 AM

AR

“ Charlie, there are no words to express the hurt that I feel in my heart. I was truly blessed with such a wonderful brother who had a gigantic heart. I will miss your smile and your bear hugs, I sure could use on now. I know you are at peace and looking down on all of us. I can hear you now telling me, " stop sweating the small stuff!" I will think of you daily until we see each other again. You will always have a special place in my heart. Lots of love your sister Anny. Xoxoxo

Ann Robison - April 08, 2011 at 12:00 AM

DW

“ We should've had a lot more days of laughter, Chuck. That sweet smile of yours and the crazy things we talked about. Only you could make me laugh so hard about the silliest things. I'm going to miss that. I only wish we spent more time talking about other things. Guess we all leave things unsaid; undone. Maybe that's just God's way of readying our souls for their next journey. Miss you.

Donna Williams - April 08, 2011 at 12:00 AM

MO

“ "Death ends a life, not a relationship" -Robert Benchley Uncle Charlie, how lucky I am to have a man, an uncle, a friend whose absence makes my heart so sad. Although you are no longer here with us, our relationships with you are unending. I know that the next time I eat a deep fried turkey or mac'n'cheese with prosciutto, you'll be hanging out right next to me. And I also know that you are in wonderful peace which comforts me. You and Pepe better behave - you're partners in crime - look out world! Always loving and missing you x's and o's. -Monica

Monica - April 08, 2011 at 12:00 AM

LL

“ Last night I dreamed of a glass shattering into a million pieces. That is how my heart is. Will miss your loving bear hugs - save one for me for later. Loving you always, Linda

Linda Robison LaBranche - April 08, 2011 at 12:00 AM

SS

“ I worked with Chuck for a little while at Bill Bryan :) I thought he was super funny. He may be having a tough day but always had a smile on his face. He always came in to say hi and kiss my forehead. He will be missed! I pray all the pain that he indured is now gone and he may rest in peace.... "I know the way I left you Wasn't the easiest way to leave I'm sorry I couldn't have made it easier Somehow lessened all the grief But you see I've been struggling For sometime with a broken heart And my best efforts to repair it Couldn't begin to start To take away the pain I felt To help me feel some hope My spirit was daily dying And I lost the strength to cope ..."

Sheila Skittenhelm - April 08, 2011 at 12:00 AM

RR

“ the best winter i ever had was the winter we spent in the florida keys you will be missed.

Russell Ridlon - April 07, 2011 at 12:00 AM

GC

“ I really dont know what to say I'm lost for words . I have a story . Chuck and I were in our 20's chuck had just got out of the Marines corp.and he came back home to Dover .There was a group of us that hang together. Fil,Rusty Ridlon and myself when Chuck came back he had these white pants that did'nt like to get dirty and always told Fil and I dont F@#$%^ with me when Im wearing these. Let me back up just a little any time Chuck and Fil and I would go out for DRINKS at the end of the night Fil and I would TRY AND i MEAN try to fight Chuck and every time he would twist the two of us up and kick our a .But this one night he had his WHITE PANTS on ,Guess what Fil and I did, We were walking home from the bar well to make a long story short, We really pissed him off we got those white pants dirty . Would really LOVE to have him around to kick my ass now . I love and miss you so much Brother and wish we could make some more stories but until we meet again you better get your white pants ready .Love and miss you Charlie

Gordon & Vickie Couch - April 07, 2011 at 12:00 AM

GF

“ Charlie, you have never left my thoughts in all the years since we were kids. You always had a smile on your face and something good to say. Your spirit will live on through all of the fun memories we have from Horne Street. I pray that you have found peace. You will never be forgotten. Watch over us Charlie....God's Speed.

Gina Fortier-deRochemont - April 07, 2011 at 12:00 AM

JG

“ R.I.P. Chucky my boy..See you on the other side as i will bring the street hockey stick you let me borrow at Horne Street Hockey Sundays..Been some time but i will never forget you...

Jon Gould - April 07, 2011 at 12:00 AM

BC

“ Chuck you will be sorely missed as we had many great memories in our younger yet mischief years across from Horne street school. of course there was no better street hockey player like your self with your half stick vs. anyone with a full stick. bro , i will miss you dearly and hold all those early memories close to my heart. please watch over us as we go through life. LOVE YOU ALWAYS CHUCK!!!

Ben & Dawn Couch - April 07, 2011 at 12:00 AM

GC

“ I have so many memories I wish we could make more . THE WHITE PANTS,GAY GUY BOB IN THE KEYS,GORDON CAN YOU SEE THE ROAD. These are just 3 of the many storys I will tell about my best friend Chuck. I will miss you Charlie you ment so much to me we have over 30 plus years of friendship and would do anything to have another 30 years . keep your white pants clean Chuck until we meet again Gordon

gordon & vickie couch - April 07, 2011 at 12:00 AM

JC

“ Chuck you will be sorely missed. I will cherish the memories of us playing street hockey at Horne St. School, and the many times that we got in trouble. I wouldn't trade those for anything. I THANK GOD for the three days that we where able to spend with you while Kristi and I where in Florida. You had a personality second to none. We Love You and hope that you have found peace. All our Love Jim & Kristi Couch

james couch - April 07, 2011 at 12:00 AM

JC

“ I want to send my sincere condolences to Chuck's entire family. We had the pleasure of spending the weekend with Chuck when we were there and had a great time. Thank God we have the pictures to hold those times. He smiled alot and laughed a bunch. We love you Chuck, I hope you found your happy place. We will miss you more than you will ever know.

Jim & Kristi Couch - April 07, 2011 at 12:00 AM

MC

“ The staff of Roberts Funeral Homes and I would like to offer our condolences to your entire family during this difficult time.

Michael Csuka - April 06, 2011 at 12:00 AM