

Charmaine Buterbaugh Haywood

August 17, 2021

Charmaine Buterbaugh Haywood, 88, passed away peacefully on August 17, 2021 in Ft. White, Florida. Affectionately known as "Gran", she was a devoted wife, mom, grandmother and friend.

Charmaine was born in Powhatan Point, Ohio and moved to Marietta, Georgia where she met Don. After they married, they lived together most of their lives in Miami, Florida and then spent 35 years in Palm Beach Gardens, Florida.

Charmaine was preceded in death by her parents Clyde and Ruth Buterbaugh, her brother, Joe Buterbaugh and her husband of 60 years, Erwin Donald Haywood.

Charmaine is survived by her son, Matthew L Haywood and daughter-in-law Chereene B Haywood and her two grandsons, Parker G Haywood and Zackery E Haywood. Also surviving are her siblings Ruth Lynch, Jean Gilmore, Malcom (and Mary Ann) Buterbaugh, Tom (and Connie) Buterbaugh and Brook Buterbaugh, and many loving nieces and nephews. She will be missed by all.

Charmaine was reunited with her husband on their 66th wedding anniversary at the South Florida National Cemetery in Lake Worth, Florida on November 23, 2021.
