

Chester Warner

June 22, 1922 - February 24, 2012

Obituary of Chester Warner Chester Warner, 89, left this world to join his beloved wife of 65 years, Dorothy Jean Warner, on Friday, February 24, 2012 at Munroe Regional Medical Center after a brief illness. Born in Amsterdam, Ohio on June 22, 1922 to Bert and Grace Warner, Chet remained in Amsterdam until he and Jean moved to Ocala in 1980. He was predeceased by his brother Arthur Warner and sister Mildred Warner. A proud veteran of WWII, Chet stormed the beaches of Normandy as a member of the 294 J.A.S.C.O. Army Unit on D-Day, June 6, 1944. He was later stationed in Hawaii, ready to fight for our country again, when the war ended. A coal miner with the Y and O Coal Company in Cadiz, Ohio and a mechanic, there was nothing Chet couldn't fix. Devoted to his family, he exemplified the term "True Christian" with both words and actions. Chet was of Methodist faith. Left to grieve are Jean and Chet's only child, Chester Ralph Warner (Barbara), grandchildren Amanda Lipham (Jerry), Chelsea Lipham (Jeremy), Ryan Warner, and Michael Warner, three great-granddaughters, nieces, nephews- especially Eric West (Jan), close friends Rick and Alice Anderson, and George (Chet's trusty feline companion). There are no plans for a service and the family asks that donations be made to the charity of the donor's choice.
