“ Goodbye dear Tinie, Sadly we said goodbye to you here in Holland. It was always nice to write with you or call you because you liked to speak dutch for a moment. You really enjoyed when you received some dutch hagestroke and applesyrup from us. But you found your place in America. Although you left a tear when you heard the Limburgs anthem by Andre Rieu. Proudly you told about Peter, Sandra, Christa and Sara. They meant the world to you. Rest in peace and the last regards from Herman and Ine Rob and Loes Tom and Silke and a paw from Mazzel.
