Christopher was born in Kendallville, Indiana to James Lee Applegate, and Deborah Jean Briggs on February 14th, 1980. He went to high school at Lakeland high school and graduated in 1998. He worked as a Foreman through his family owned construction business, and also was a volunteer Firefighter/ first responder, as well as being in the United States Marine Corps. He enjoyed riding his motorcycles, and target shooting. He was president of the booster club, and very involved in Belleview High school's JROTC.

He is survived by His Father James Applegate of Belleview, His Step mother Juanita Applegate of Belleview, His wife Angel Applegate of Ocala, his daughters Morgan Camp of Summerfield, Isis Applegate of Belleview, Madison Applegate of Belleview, Emily Applegate of Ocala, His Brother Ryan Applegate of Belleview, and His sister Amanda Schieber of Fort Wayne, his grandchildren Kendrick Martinez of Belleview, Nevaeh Camp of Summerfield, Steven Camp of Summerfield, Diana Martinez of Belleview, Greyson Martinez of Belleview. He is Preceded in death by his mother Deborah Briggs, His daughter Riley Applegate, and his brother Jeff Applegate.

Roberts of Ocala Funerals and Cremations will be handling his Cremation arrangements.

Memorial Donations can be made to the Huntington's Association through their website. The family wishes to extend their gratitude to The Huntington's Association.

Chris was a very loveable, kind person that could talk to anyone. He was most proud of being a grandfather, and loved his family very much. He had an infectious laugh that could make a room light up. He was always there to support his children in whatever they wished to do. He is very loved, and desperately missed.
