

Christopher Burke

December 21, 1958 - August 18, 2024

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing on Christopher Burke, a dedicated shrimper and a hard-working individual, who left us on Sunday, August 18, 2024. Born on December 21, 1958, Christopher was a pillar of strength and resilience, known for his unwavering dedication to his family and his craft.

Christopher spent his life on the waters of Homosassa, Florida, embodying the spirit of a true shrimper, and many successful business endeavors. His commitment to his work was unmatched, and his hands bore the marks of countless hours spent ensuring that his family and community were provided for. He was not only a skilled shrimper, but also a mentor to many, sharing his knowledge and passion with those around him.

Beyond his work, Christopher was a loving father, husband and friend. His kindness, sense of humor, and generosity touched the lives of everyone he met. He leaves behind a legacy of hard work, love, and dedication that will be remembered by all who knew him.

Christopher was preceded in death by his parents, William Edward & Inez Merel (Runyon) Burke and a brother, Steven Burke. Survivors include his wife, Armie Burke; his son, Christopher Ryan Burke; his daughter, Kendra Kay Burke; his grandchildren: Shane Burke & Hendrix Graham; his brothers:

Edward (Tracy) Burke and Billy (Donna) Burke; his sisters: Mary Lou (Jim) Mitchel and Diana (Everett "Buddy")Nichols and Sherry (Ricky)Payne.
