

Clara Packard

November 14, 1936 - February 20, 2017

Clare Packard was loving, generous, and full of life. With her quick wit and infectious laugh, she found a way to connect with everyone she met, and made sure that she gave them a smile. She left us far too soon on Monday, February 20, 2017. Clara Mae Packard, nee Bratton, was born on November 14, 1936 in Woodbury, New Jersey to Mark and Anna (nee Coward) Bratton, who preceded her in death. She was also preceded in death by her brother, Mark. She was a loving wife to her husband of many years, Doug Packard; a wonderful mother to her children, Garry (Cynthia) Human, Timothy (Kathleen) Human, and Donna Cutchshaw (Salestus). Clare was a doting and fun grandmother to her grandchildren: Christine (Joel Pearson) and Daniel (Valerie); Kellene (David), Sarah (Andrew), Brittany (Eric), and Timothy (Morgan Baade); Kealy (David) and Kealan. She was also cherished by her beautiful great-grandchildren: Ashlynn, Robert, Layla, and Olivia. She is also survived by her former son-in-law, Steve Cutchshaw, and many loving step-children, step-grandchildren, and dear friends. A private memorial will be held in the Green Room at the Silver Springs RV Park, 3151 N.E. 56th Avenue, Silver Springs, FL on Thursday, March 2nd at 11:00 a.m.
