

Clarence Wiley

December 4, 1923 - December 24, 2017

Clarence E. Wiley, 94 of Ocklawaha, Florida died on Sunday, December 24, 2017 at Ocala Regional Medical Center, Ocala, Florida. Born December 4, 1923 in Pike County Kentucky to Bud and Carrie (Stapleton) Willey. He was married to his wife Oma on October 6, 1959 by his father, Bud. He served his country proudly in the United States Army during WWII, owned and operated his own small engine repair shop, and was a member of the Little Dove Baptist Church. He is precedent in death by his parents, his wife Oma in 2006 and a son Clyde Wiley in March 1995; stepson, Bobby Jones who passed away on February 7, 2003, stepdaughter, Lois Ana Manns who passed away on March 23, 2015. Thoses surviving him are his son, Rick Wiley and his wife Becky of Franklin, Ohio, daughter,-in-law, Betty Jones and sisters, Bessie Atkins and Madge Jennings along with numerous grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, and nephews.