

Clyde Walker McLean

April 8, 1947 - April 6, 2025

It is with deep sadness that we announce the passing of “Grandpaw” Clyde Walker McLean. He joined his beautiful wife in heaven on April 6, 2025, just two days shy of his 78th birthday. Born on April 8, 1947, Clyde lived a life marked by strength, dedication, and an unwavering love for his family and friends.

Clyde was a man of remarkable character—strong-willed, warm-hearted, and always willing to lend a hand. His knowledge of machinery was profound, and he passionately enjoyed learning and teaching others. He generously shared his skills and creativity with his family and those around him.

A proud gardener, Clyde loved the earth and enjoyed passing on his wisdom and sharing the joy of working with nature. His hands, worn from hard work, were always dedicated to providing for his family.

We remember Clyde not only for his knowledge and skills but for his playful spirit and unwavering work ethic. His ability to teach and guide those around him will be forever cherished. Clyde’s humor and ability to bring people together left a lasting impression of warmth and light.

He is survived by his beloved siblings, daughters, son, and grandchildren, who will carry on his legacy of love, generosity, and hard work. Clyde leaves behind a family who loved him deeply and will honor his memory in every task they take on and every seed they plant.

Clyde lived life to the fullest, teaching us all the value of hard work, dedication, and love. Though he will be greatly missed, we are grateful to have known such love.

As we say goodbye to this great man, he is reunited with his beautiful wife, Helen.

We love you, Grandpaw!
