“ I only knew Larry a short time but we became fast friends. His laughter was infectious and his sense of humor was quick. We went out for a bite often, walked Flagler to pass the time, enjoyed drinks near the beach and watched the sunset. His love and pride for his family was always in conversation. Fly with the angels Lar, I will not forget you.

Larry was a good friend and fishing partner. I was known to raid his freezer in the garage for a snapper or grouper diner filet. I know Larry is again with Lynda and forever happy
